a friend, a friend, a good friend (real good)

It was you who went with me beyond the danger point

Oh, I was you who stayed with me when I had shut you off through the danger point any sort of joint though I'd meant to let you down where only fools are you though I would rant + scold entirely + cruel whatever I would do

You are fast asleep beneath the window that I made Emotions are more beautiful when they aren't shared Soon I'll be with you ~~fast asleep~~ sleeping without my state I will try to be less drunk on darling every day

Oh
