I hung your clothes out on the line ~~Am~~

I had a ^{few} ~~few~~ you're sitting at your desk away at school ~~that's the way it is~~

I ~~had~~ put some clothespins in my teeth ~~while you were gone~~ from ^{me} strung a row of ~~the~~ clothes that ~~we~~ school yards were

My ~~feet~~ ^{hands} were and toes were ~~cool~~ ^{cold} to the breeze and dampened leaves

The ground was hanging up so damp well ~~but so do I~~

I put the ^{quadrant} basket down
Pulled each stem out

Overlapped and clipped them a few fell
But I did well

At Each party and each blouse I'd sigh - How the time goes by You've got some unmatched slacks here ^{to do} ~~from where do they come~~

I hung your laundry up today - You're not ^{so} far away
The sky & ocean grey - ~~It~~ surely looks like rain
