I love Jesus too

F#m7

There were some Jesus freaks a singer in the plaza
 Electric, oowas snappy leads and riffs
 The words were strictly out of church camp genre
 There was one song introduced by this
 "Budha, he died - Mohammed he died
 But Jesus was dead and reborn"
 Then she said this next one's about Jesus
 Which I'm sure surprised no one
 I was driven by in the slow traffic then
 Tried to think of something to yell
 But I thought of nothing and hadn't she word
 I guess it's just as well but I love Jesus too - don't you know it - I guess it's hard to tell it

 I love Jesus too - I never show it - and I never felt it
 I love Jesus too - My father, daughter - I never will forget it
 I love Jesus too - yes I do

Have you ever had a lover that loved you kinda crazy so that he gave you the creeps
 He who said ye are all gods, ~~right~~ would surely suck in Maceys
 If on Market he came upon Jesus freaks
 He picked his nose, he blew his cool
 He merely tried to show what people thought, us our thought
 Devotion is a universal way to be free
 But it's so easy to get caught
 Our teachers may put out their best to the waiting
 They may love us and guide and exhort
 But to walk on the water is swim in the mud
 That has no time to fear or distort

Oh I love Jesus too - I've heard so much about him - He's there in our true nature
 I love Jesus too - I never ever doubt him - and don't quibble on names of I love Jesus too - just trusting in our body - she rocks beyond holding
 I love Jesus too - yes I do
 I love Jesus too - although you know - we're members of Jesus Christ
 "I love Jesus too" - he's one of countless who walked into the desert
